WHAT WAS DONE IN STOCKS.

Wednesday, April 19-p. m. The stock market is awaiting with commendable patience a distinct enunciation of the financial of the new Administration. Prices dee ined to-day from fear that a discrimination might be made between the many different forms of currency. There was no conclusive reason, however, to suppose that the reports about the Treasury notes issued under the Sherman law were correct. It is admitted, at once, that the best way to prove a law had is to enforce it. The act of 1890 was undoubtedly bad, because it attempted to establish two measures of value without an international agreement. The countries which prefer gold as a standard have been drawing it from the one country which undervalued it. It is not surprising, therefore, that the movement of merchandise should be toward this country and that of gold outward. The very ramor that the Treasury contemplated for an instant the exercise of its legal power to refuse gold for Treasury notes was be virtually a suspension of specie payments, and it is a happy sign that no official order to this effect has been issued. The supposition that it would check the outflow of gold was answered by the advance in foreign exchange and the arrange ment of shipments on Saturday of at least $2,500,mere dams which confine the stream to make it a

The most significant feature of the stock market to-day was the weakness of the Gould stocks. Missouri Pacific may have been affected by St. Louis rumers of a receivership, but in spite of a rally of nearly 1 per cent it suffered a final loss of 2 5-8 per cent. There were no special reasons for the movements, but Western Union, Manhattan Railway and less active stocks in the same group, like Union Facific and Wabash preferred, closed at about their lowest agures. If there is one stock in the whole list which should not be affected otherwise than favorably by a suspension of gold payments, a war in Europe, by a cholera epidemic or an International exposition, it is Western Union Telegraph, and yet that stock was weak, even if it was not active. It is out of the question to attribute the selling of any stocks the question to attribute the selling of any stocks to bearish attacks. There was a slow but steady liquidation, and perhaps there would have been a more active market if it would have absorbed larger offerings. A gold panie in a mild form seems to be in progress.

THE DAY IN THE BOND MARKET. Small sales of Government 4s were made at drooping prices. For both classes of this issue bids were lowered. The closing quotations were

The business in State issues was limited to Alabama, class iB, at 1661-2. Of city bank stocks Scaboard sold (5) at 176, but sales at auction were rather more numerous than usual. They are reported in another place.

There was practically no demand for railway bonds, and consequently prices continued to decline. Eric second consols fell to 951-2, and at 96 suffered a final loss of 1-2 per cent. Atchison general 4s were 1-4 lower at 82, but class A seconds were steady around 52. Reading incomes were dull and not materially canaged. Texas and Pacific issues were pressed for sale, but their final losses were fractional. Western New-York and Pennsylvania seconds fell 1 per cent to 25. Reference is made to our full report of bond sales.

Money on call ruled at 4 per cent. Exceptionally there were some loans at 41-2 and 31-2 per cent.

The Clearing House statement was as follows: Exchanges, $131,604,041; balances, $5,576,842.

The day's operations included: Receipts, $5,077,622; payments, $4,232,164; resulting in a general balance of $88,128,881, consisting of $72,741,112 coip and $15,387,169 currency. The Treasury bought 425,000 ounces of silver bullion at $31-2 cents an oance. The offerings were $90,000 ounces, but the prices of those which were rejected were not made public.

The United States Treasury at Washington received to-day $513,721 National bank notes for the satisfica recemption.

The customs receipts were $653,748, the internal revenue receipts $551,687, and the miscellaneous receipts $90,120.
